Notes for Capt. William Propst:

2nd. Lt. William Propst served in the Civil War. He enlisted on 7th. July, 1862 in Cabarrus County in Company "F" 57th. NCST. He enlisted when Company F organized in Concord in July 1862. Propst was captured at the Battle of Chancellorsville, May 4, 1863, but was exchanged in time to rejoin his regiment for the Gettysburg campaign. He was shot in the side at Gettysburg and was one of the thousands of wounded Confederates abandoned when the Army of Northern Virginia retreated at the conclusion of the battle. He was imprisoned until exchanged on May 8, 1864. He returned to duty, and was recaptured again at the Battle of Hatcher's Run, Virginia, on February 6, 1865. He was imprisoned at Old Capitol Prison, Washington, DC., & Fort Delaware, DE. He was released on June 8, 1865, after taking the Oath of Allegiance.

Capt. William Propst was born in Cabarrus County, N. C., February 17, 1831, and died in Concord, N.C., August 11, 1919, in his eighty-ninth year.

Captain Propst was married to Miss Etta Ritchie on June 7, 1854. He is survived by his wife, eighty-five years of age, and three children, John W. Propst, of Concord, N.C., Mrs. C. W. Trice and Henry L. Propst, of Lexington, N.C. (one daughter, Mrs. John R. Patterson, died a good many years ago), also by twenty-seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Captian Propst enlisted in Company F, 57 North Carolina Regiment, and was commissioned captain of the company, serving in that capacity the entire four years of the war. He was a brave and true soldier and was in all the battles under Lee and Jackson until the battle of Gettysburg, where he was severely wounded and left on the field. He was taken prisoner there and sent to Johnson's Island until the close of the war. He then returned to his farm, in Cabarrus County, and started to work, helping to build up the waste places. He was elected sheriff of Cabarrus County in 1882, holding the office a number of years, and he was at one time county commissioner.

Captain Propst was an official of St. James Lutheran church and very prominent in all its interests, faithful in attendance, and a liberal contributor to all objects. He was a man of unusual character, goodness and sincerity, a gentleman in the highest degree, and numbered his friends by the limit of his acquaintances. He was known by nearly everyone in Cabarrus County. The many beautiful floral designs attested to his popularity. Eight grandsons acted as pallbearers.

Notes for John Patterson:

John Patterson was born about 1730 in Scotland. He arrived in Philadelphia in 1748. In 1737 Henry McCulloh, a merchant was granted 1,200,000 acres of land in North Carolina. Around 1760 the great tide of movement came to the Southern Colonies--Alexanders, Pattersons, Jacks, Polks, Pattons, Caldwells, Wallaces, Wilsons, Clarks, Rosses, and Browns settled in the eastern part of Mecklenburg County(now Cabarrus)(Sketches of Western NC, Hunter). These people were sponsored by Henry McCulloh, who owned land in NC. JOHN served as Tax Assessor of Mecklenburg County from 1778. He lived in District 18. He was married to Elizabeth thought to be an Alexander. He is first found in the records of Anson County. Rowan County was formed from Anson County in 1753. On March 25, 1752, William Alexander bought 640 acres in Anson Co., joining John Patterson and Samuel Blythe. On Jan. 12, 1753, William Alexander, merchant, sold land to Joshua Nichols, Planter. These 640 acres were adjacent to John Patterson's land. On April 6, 1753 Griffith Rutherford bought 700 acres in Anson Co. On May 9, 1753, John Patterson bought 250 acres in Bladen Co. at the head of a branch of Rockfish Creek being the place where William Gilmore did live. On Jan. 28 and 29, 1754, William Alexander, merchant, sold 496 acres of land on the North side of the Cuttaba, south side of 12-mile Creek to John Patterson of Rowan. On February 14, and 15, 1754, John Patterson and wife Elizabeth, his wife of Rowan, sold 496 acres (as described above) to William Nutt, Jr. of Anson County. On Dec. 21, 1761, John Patterson bought 628 acres in Rowan County on the Waters of Sills Creek joining James Erwin, Johsua Nichols, and Samuel Blythe. (This John Patterson may be the father of Robert who married Rhoda Witt and moved to Tennessee). On Oct. 6 and 7, 1763 John Burnet and wife Mary of Rowan County, sold 250 acres of land in Mecklenburg County on Coldwater Creek adjacent to Earl Granville's line to John Patterson. The witnesses were John Haggin, Martin Phifer, and John Patton. On July 6, 1772, Henry Fashparmon and wife Cristiana of Mecklenburg sold 100 acres on Coldwater Creek to John Patterson. On April 13, 1774, Thomas Polk, Abraham Alexander, and Jeremiah McCafferty of Mecklenburg sold to John Patterson and Will Patterson, Jr. lots 197 and 194 on the North side of Tryon Street in Charlotte. John died Oct. 16, 1788, and is thought to be buried in Barberick Cemetery, Concord, NC. His will is filed in Will Book 17, Mecklenburg County, now stored in Raleigh. His will was witnessed by Hugh Patterson who served in the Revolutionary War. Please note that DAR Patriot Index records state that a John Patterson in Cabarrus County born 1730 in Ireland and died after 16 October 1786 was in Patriot service.
